The VCU Parkinson’s and Movement Disorders Center is finally settled into our newly expanded space and we’ve been so focused on research and patient care; we haven’t had time to decorate!

We are looking for artists to donate pieces of hope to fill our walls. We need artwork that will bring hope, promote healing, inspire and beautify our space.

Guidelines
Our selection committee is in need of pieces to be hung on the walls in our reception area, hallways, and examination rooms.

Priority will be given to those pieces that share the story of how your life has been touched by a movement disorder or neurodegenerative disease, the mind, wellness, health and promote a sense of hope, healing, and wellbeing.

All pieces must:
- Be two dimensional
- Not weigh more than 15 lb.

Important Dates
- March 15, 2014 -- Initial review of submissions by selection committee
- March 31, 2014 -- Selection decisions communicated to artists
- May 15, 2014 --- Artwork delivery deadline

Additional Information and fine print
If selected, the artist agrees to donate the art piece to the VCU Parkinson’s and Movement Disorders Center. The IRS has specific guidelines regarding the tax-deductibility of artwork donations. Please reference the IRS Publication 561 guide for additional information. http://www.irs.gov/publications/p561/ar02.html#d0e617

VCU Parkinson’s and Movement Disorders Center will maintain ownership of the artwork.

How To Submit
Please complete the application form, and submit with a photograph of the piece to:
